22 • Bespoke Bi-fold Leather Wallet by The Blue Ficus

This homegrown studio provides the finest customized leather goods to audiences worldwide. Set up in 2018 by Kenneth Teh, part of the Verbum Dei family, the workshop focuses on creating well made leather pieces with simple but clean aesthetic designs, giving attention to subtle details.

Choose your own type of leather from the two options below, as well as your own colour combination for the exterior and interior. All items are made to order.

Size: 100 mm x 95mm. Elegant and slim, compact wallet featuring eight credit card slots, and long note compartment.

Interior is fully lined with leather, and is hand-stitched to perfection. The edges have been treated several times with lacquered ink to give the signature finished edge to the piece. Monogramming service available upon request.
